Hilton Scranton & Conference Center

Today's economic climate has helped foster a new wave of innovative financing programs to assist local governments and nonprofits in implementing energy efficient and renewable energy projects. This seminar will highlight loan programs, rebates and grants to implement feasible projects that reduce energy demand, maintenance and improve facility and office functionality. The program will highlight the use of Energy Service Companies (ESCO's) and the Act 77 Guaranteed Energy Savings Act (GESA) Contract. The seminar is intended for local governments, counties, municipal authorities, schools and nonprofits. However, some of the financing programs will be applicable to businesses.
