Pennsylvania businesses are fortunate to have access to one of the largest, most comprehensive state-sponsored export development programs in the U.S. with 15 Authorized Trade Representatives covering 52 countries.

Meet Pennsylvania's Authorized Trade Representatives, learn about the business development resources available to your company and network at this unique event. These are professional business consultants, located in their respective markets that are contracted by the state to help Pennsylvania business export. All 15 of Pennsylvania's Authorized Trade Representatives will be available for meetings.

"The trade advisors are here to help and they do a great job. This is a 'Must Go To' event."

Charles Umphred, Scent-Sations, Inc

"This event not only provides our company access to international markets, but also allows us to work with experts on our behalf."

James Abrams, EthosGen
